FROM COLORADO.

Boulder, Colorado, August 15, 1903.
Dear Eagle:—

We have been thinking ever since we arrived we would write and tell you of our journey here. We were delayed on our trip on account of late trains and did not reach Boulder until Aug. 4th. We very much enjoyed the trip however, because of the beautiful scenery along the route and the superior accommodations of the railroad over which we came. First, we passed through the broad plains of Texas with great fields of wheat ready for harvesting or already harvested, then the little stretch of country through New Mexico where we saw our first "doble" houses, and then into beautiful Colorado which is truly a land of sunshine and flowers. We are now located at the Chataqua grounds, situated at the foot of lofty hills in a fertile valley, and one mile from the city of Boulder, reached by street car line. The surrounding country is beautiful, the nights cool and delightful, only in day time the sun shines like it does in Texas. There are about five hundred persons at present on the Chataqua grounds. Some are here for the course of study, some for pleasure, but all enjoy the attractions and entertainments. Texas leads all the other states in the number of persons, there being about seventy-five Texans present. We have heard a most delightful talk on "Texas Federation of Clubs," by our own Mrs. Pennybacker, whom all Texas claims and loves, and we were sorry to find she is not a native Texan. We have listened to Mr. Gielow of Alabama, an impersonator of rare ability in character sketches of "black mammy and the chiluns," which was very fine. Today we go to the recital of the elocution class. Mrs. Lawrence will be called on for recitation and we are sure she will do credit to our town. Tomorrow we go on the tallyho trip up Boulder canon—twenty-five miles and back and are told we shall see some wonderful works of nature. Then we go to Colorado Springs and shall try to write again from that point.
In conclusion I take this means of thanking all those who were so kind as to afford me the opportunity and pleasure of being in Colorado, and assure all I very much appreciate my trip.
Yours Truly,
Mrs. Lamar Betha.

FIRST BALE IN.

The first bale of cotton for the season was brought in yesterday morning by Mr. J. C. Cloud of the Kurten neighborhood. It was ginned by G. S. Parker and weighed 422 pounds at the Lawrence warehouse. Howell Bros. sold the bale to D. S. Hart for 11 1/2 cents per pound. The premiums were free ginning and $3.00 from the warehouse, a barrel of flour from Howell Bros. and $5.00 from the Central Texas fair association. The bale was placed on exhibition at the fair grounds.
